The parties and their respective attorneys further acknowledge that settlement is made to avoid the uncertainty of the outcome of litigation and the expense in time and money of further litigation and for the purpose of judicial economy. Plaintiff and his attorneys agree that they or any firm with which said attorneys are affiliated or with which said attorneys may later become affiliated shall not use this settlement as notice of misconduct on the part of any defendant and/or the City of Chicago's future, current or former officers, agents and employees, or for any other purpose in any other litigation, and that any such use is inconsistent with the terms of this Release and Settlement Agreement.

4. In consideration of the hereinafter indicated settlement entered pursuant to this Release and Settlement Agreement, and upon advice of counsel, plaintiff, Brian Williams, agrees to dismiss with prejudice all of his claims against defendants, City of Chicago, Peter Arpaia, Andrew Dakuras, Eric Cato, Peter White, Robert Woods, Stanley Figus, Scott Hall, Angel Amador, Craig Dunderdale, Chris Witezak, Mark Jaeger and Christopher McHugh, with

This sum shall be payable solely by the City of Chicago, and plaintiff and/or his attorneys agree that they will not seek payment from any source other than the City of Chicago. The settlement check will be made payable to plaintiff, his attorneys, and lien claimants, if any, of which the City has notice.

11. In entering into this Release and Settlement Agreement, plaintiff represents that he has relied upon the advice of his attorney, who are the attorneys of his own choice, and that the terms of this Release and Settlement Agreement have been interpreted, completely read and explained to him by his attorneys, and that those terms are fully understood and voluntarily accepted by plaintiff.
